LIFE CHANGING LEADERSHIP
Shifting from old energy to new energy with amazing results!

WHY DO WE MANAGE PERFORMANCE? Why do we continue to believe that we can manage the behavior and actions of another person? Asking the really hard questions and exploring the multitude of possible answers is what Yvonne does best. Why is the victim mentality alive and well, what can we do about it? How can we shift our organizations from the old energy of command and control to the new energy of personal accountability?

Yvonne's high-energy presentations captivate audiences each and every time. Yvonne challenges our fundamental beliefs about performance and accountability. She loves to ask and explore the tough questions like: Who Manages YOU Best? The answer is always the same, "I do of course". So why do we think our employees are any different than we are. They simply want an opportunity to lead themselves. Yvonne uses accepted research in Neuroscience and Heart/Brain connection to challenge our fundamental beliefs about people performance, and personal accountability. Yvonne takes her audience on a journey of exploration into how to shift from victim to empowerment and where corporate culture can evolve into increased honesty and enhanced personal accountability with amazing results. Yvonne shares a roadmap and her unique Accountability Model. She is generous with all of her materials and truly believes in sharing all that she knows in order to assist corporations in moving towards a Culture of Personal Accountability.
